The Berlin Node

The Berlin Node consists of six core partners (Deutsche Telekom AG, Siemens AG, SAP AG, Fraunhofer Gesellschaft e.V., DFKI gGmbH and TU Berlin) plus seven affiliate partners: Max Planck Institute for Informatics, Saarland University, TU Darmstadt - Center for Advanced Security Research Darmstadt (CASED), TU München, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT), EICT GmbH and Opera Software ASA with complimentary competencies fully committed to fulfill the ambitious goals of EIT ICT Labs.

Being among the leading R&D and economic hubs in European ICT, our partners in the Munich region will reinforce the Berlin Node. This affiliated hotspot includes Siemens ICT corporate research and Technische Universität München with its associated institutes CDTM, UnternehmerTUM, and fortiss – strong partners in entrepreneurial education and innovation centres for cyber-physical systems.

Travel directions to the Berlin Co-Location Centre

Arrival by train

- Berlin Hauptbahnhof railway station
  Take bus No. 245 heading towards “S+U-Bahnhof Zoologischer Garten”. Disembark at bus stop “Marchstraße”. The bus departs every 10 minutes from Invalidenstraße (just north of the station) and the trip takes about 20 minutes. A bus ticket costs € 2,30.

Arrival by airplane

- From Tegel airport (TXL)
  Take bus No. X9 heading towards “S+U-Bahnhof Zoologischer Garten” and disembark at “U Ernst-Reuter-Platz”.
  The trip will approximately take 20 minutes. A bus ticket costs € 2,30.

- From Schönefeld airport (SXF)
  Take the free shuttle bus or walk to the S-Bahn station “Flughafen Berlin-Schönefeld”. From there, take Deutsche Bahn trains RE7 (heading towards “Zoologischer Garten”) or RB14 (heading towards “Nauen”). The trains alternately depart every 30 minutes and the trip will take some 35 min. A ticket costs € 2,30. Disembark at “Zoologischer Garten” station. You may then take the U2 subway line heading towards “Ruhleben” for one stop and disembark at “Ernst-Reuter-Platz” or walk the distance (approx. 10 minutes). Altogether, the trip should take 45 min.

Arrival by car

If you are travelling to Berlin by car, it is best to take the highway or Stadtautobahn. From the exit marked Kaiserdamm, it is approximately a 10 minute drive to Ernst-Reuter-Platz, depending on traffic.

- Arriving from the north via the A 111
  Follow the A 111. This will automatically take you onto the A 100. Take the exit marked Kaiserdamm, and turn left into Knobelsdorffstraße. After crossing the Autobahn turn right into Sophie-Charlottenstraße. Turn left into Kaiserdamm at the next traffic light. Follow Kaiserdamm / Bismarckstraße until you reach Ernst-Reuter-Platz.

- Arriving from the south via the A 115 (Avus) or the A 100
  If you are arriving via the A 115 (Avus), please continue to the intersection Dreieck Funkturm. From there, take the A 100 heading towards Hamburg. Take the exit marked Kaiserdamm, turn right into Knobelsdorffstraße and turn right again at the next traffic light into Sophie-Charlottenstraße. At the next traffic light, turn left into Kaiserdamm. Follow Kaiserdamm / Bismarckstraße until you reach Ernst-Reuter-Platz.
